

FIRST THINGS FIRST

Ready for School. Set for Life.

Partnering with parents and families to help all children,
ages birth to 5, stay healthy and succeed in school

Family Guide to First Things First Funded Programs for Colorado River Indian Tribes

Contact

Do you have parenting questions, or need advice?

Birth to Five Helpline

Helps families with young children get free answers to their toughest parenting questions.

Southwest Human Development

1-877-705-KIDS (5437)

Want to see how reading and play can help your child learn?

Helps parents support their young child's love of words and books.

Colorado River Indian Tribes Library

928-669-1285

Do you want information about your child's physical or oral health?

CRIT Women, Infants and Children (WIC) Program

Improves the health and safety of young children by providing community-based health education on a variety of topics including: healthy food choices and appropriate physical activity.

Colorado River Indian Tribes Department of Health Services

928-669-5504

Are you seeking quality child care for your infant or toddler?

Helps low-income families afford a better educational beginning for their children.

Little Blessings Day Care

928-669-9777

CRIT Head Start

928-662-4311

Are you pursuing a degree in Early Childhood Education and need financial assistance?

The Professional Career Pathway Project offered through Arizona Western College provides financial assistance for those working in a preschool or child care center.

Arizona Western College

928-344-7790

First Things First Colorado River Indian Tribes Regional Partnership Council

For more information call:

928-669-2473 or contact Erin Taylor, Community Outreach Coordinator at etaylor@azftf.gov or 928-854-8732

This region consists of the Colorado River Indian Tribes Reservation, which includes the Town of Parker.